Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Introduction

Under current law, the federal Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA), which governs jurisdiction over child custody proceedings involving an Indian child and provides certain minimum standards for those proceedings, supercedes the provisions of the Children's Code and the Juvenile Justice Code in any child custody proceeding governed by ICWA. For purposes of ICWA, "child custody proceeding" means any of the following:

1. Any action removing an Indian child from his or her parent or Indian custodian, that is, an Indian person who has legal custody of an Indian child under tribal law or custom or state law or to whom temporary physical custody of an Indian child has been transferred by the Indian child's parent, for temporary placement in a foster home or institution, in which the parent or Indian custodian cannot have the Indian child removed on demand, but not including a placement that is based on an act that would be a crime if committed by an adult (out-of-home care placement).
2. A termination of parental rights (TPR) proceeding.
3. A temporary placement of an Indian child in a foster home or institution after a TPR, but prior to or in lieu of an adoptive placement (preadoptive placement).
4. An adoptive placement.

This bill incorporates the jurisdictional provisions of ICWA and the minimum standards for Indian child custody proceedings established by ICWA into the provisions of the Children's Code relating to child in need of protection or services (CHIPS), TPR, and adoption proceedings and the provisions of the Juvenile Justice Code relating to juvenile in need of protection or services (JIPS) proceedings, other than proceedings that are based on the commission of an act that would be a crime if committed by an adult.

Jurisdiction

Under ICWA, an Indian tribe has exclusive jurisdiction over an Indian child custody proceeding involving an Indian child who resides or is domiciled within the reservation of the tribe and over an Indian child who is a ward of a tribal court, regardless of the residence or domicile of the Indian child, except when jurisdiction is otherwise vested in the state by federal law. This grant of jurisdiction, however, does not prevent the emergency removal of an Indian child who resides or is domiciled on a reservation, but who is temporarily located off the reservation, from his or her parent or Indian custodian in order to prevent imminent physical damage or harm to the Indian child.

Also, under ICWA, a state court is required to transfer a proceeding involving an out-of-home care placement of, or TPR to, an Indian child who is not residing or domiciled within the reservation of the Indian child's tribe to the jurisdiction of the Indian child's tribe upon the petition of the Indian child's parent, Indian custodian, or tribe, unless a parent of the Indian child objects, the tribal court declines jurisdiction, or the state court finds good cause not to transfer the proceeding. In addition, ICWA permits an Indian child's parent, Indian custodian, or tribe to intervene at any point in an Indian child custody proceeding in state court involving the out-of-home care placement of, or TPR to, the Indian child.

Insert
Finally, with respect to jurisdiction over an Indian child custody proceeding, ICWA requires a state court to decline jurisdiction and to forthwith return an Indian child to his or her parent or Indian custodian, unless returning the Indian child would subject the Indian child to a substantial and immediate danger or threat of danger, when a petitioner in an Indian child custody proceeding has improperly removed the Indian child from the custody of his or her parent or Indian custodian or has improperly retained custody after a visit or other temporary relinquishment of custody.

This bill incorporates those jurisdictional provisions of ICWA into the Children's Code and the Juvenile Justice Code.

~~Involuntary~~ ^{Out} ~~out~~-of-home care placements and TPR proceedings

ICWA requires a party seeking an out-of-home care placement of, or TPR to, an Indian child in an involuntary proceeding in state court to notify the Indian child's parent, Indian custodian, and tribe, by registered mail with return receipt requested, of the proceeding and of their right to intervene in the proceeding. Under ICWA, if the identity or location of the parent, Indian custodian, or tribe cannot be determined, notice of the proceeding must be provided to the U.S. secretary of the interior, who then has 15 days after receipt of the notice to provide the notice to the parent, Indian custodian, and tribe. ICWA prohibits an out-of-home care placement or TPR proceeding from being heard until at least ten days after receipt of notice by the parent, Indian custodian, or tribe or by the U.S. secretary of the interior and permits a parent, Indian custodian, or tribe to request up to 20 additional days to prepare for the proceeding.

This bill requires an Indian child's parent, Indian custodian, and tribe to be notified, in the manner specified in ICWA, of a CHIPS, JIPS, or TPR proceeding involving the Indian child, of a change in placement in a CHIPS or JIPS proceeding involving the Indian child, or of a hearing to determine or review the permanency plan for the Indian child. A permanency plan is a plan designed to ensure that a child is reunified with his or her family whenever appropriate or that the child quickly attains a placement providing long-term stability. The bill prohibits a CHIPS, JIPS, or TPR hearing, a change in placement hearing, or a permanency plan determination or review hearing from being held until at least ten days after receipt of notice of the hearing by the parent, Indian custodian, or tribe and permits a parent, Indian custodian, or tribe to request up to 20 additional days to prepare for the hearing.

Under ICWA, a parent or Indian custodian who is indigent has the right to court-appointed counsel in any proceeding involving the removal of an Indian child from his or her home, placement of an Indian child in an out-of-home care placement, or TPR to an Indian child. This bill incorporates that right into the Children's Code and the Juvenile Justice Code.

ICWA requires a party seeking to effect an out-of-home care placement of, or a TPR to, an Indian child to satisfy the state court that active efforts have been made to provide remedial services and rehabilitation programs designed to prevent the breakup of the Indian family and that those efforts have proved unsuccessful. ICWA also prohibits a state court from ordering an out-of-home care placement of, or TPR to, an Indian child in the absence of a determination, supported by clear and convincing evidence in the case of out-of-home care placement and by evidence beyond a reasonable doubt in the case of TPR, including the testimony, ^{of} qualified expert witnesses, that continued custody of the Indian child by his or her parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the Indian child.

This bill requires a CHIPS or JIPS order or a change in placement order placing an Indian child outside the home to include a finding, supported by clear and convincing evidence, including the testimony of one or more qualified expert witnesses, that continued custody of the Indian child by his or her parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the Indian child and a finding, supported by clear and convincing evidence that the agency primarily responsible for providing services to the Indian child has made active efforts to prevent the breakup of the Indian family and that those efforts have proved unsuccessful. The bill also requires the ~~court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under the Children's Code and the Juvenile Justice Code~~ juvenile court or jury in a TPR proceeding to determine if it is proved beyond a reasonable doubt, including the testimony of one or more qualified expert witnesses, that continued custody of the Indian child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child and if it is proved beyond a reasonable doubt that active efforts have been made to prevent the breakup of the Indian family and that those efforts have proved unsuccessful. In addition, the bill requires an order extending a CHIPS or JIPS dispositional order for an Indian child who is placed outside the home and a summary of a permanency plan review for such a child to include a determination as to whether active efforts were made to prevent the breakup of the Indian family and as to whether those efforts have proved unsuccessful.

 ICWA further requires an Indian child who is accepted for an out-of-home care placement or a preadoptive placement to be placed in the least restrictive setting which most approximates a family and in which the Indian child's special needs, if any, may be met and requires an Indian child to be placed within reasonable proximity to his or her home, taking into account any special needs of the Indian child. ICWA also requires that a preference be given, in the absence of good cause to the contrary, to a placement with a member of the Indian child's extended family, a foster home licensed, approved, or specified by the Indian child's tribe, an Indian foster home licensed or approved by an authorized non-Indian licensing authority, or an institution for children approved by an Indian tribe or operated by an Indian organization that has a program suitable to meet the Indian child's needs, unless the Indian child's tribe has established a different order of preference. ICWA also specifies that the standards to be applied in meeting the placement preference requirements of ICWA are the prevailing social and cultural standards of the Indian community in which the Indian child's parent or extended family resides or with which the parent or extended family maintains social and cultural ties.

This bill requires the juvenile court, in placing or changing the placement of an Indian child who is in need of protection or services or in placing an Indian child in a preadoptive placement following a TPR, to designate one of the following as the placement for the Indian child, in the order of preference listed, unless the Indian child's tribe has established a different order of preference or good cause is shown for departing from that order of preference:

1. The home of an extended family member of the Indian child.
2. A foster home or treatment foster home licensed, approved, or specified by the Indian child's tribe.
3. An Indian foster home or treatment foster home licensed or approved by the Department of Health and Family Services (DHFS), a county department of human services or social services (county department), or a child welfare agency.
4. A group home or residential care center for children and youth approved by an Indian tribe or operated by an Indian organization that has a program suitable to meet the needs of the Indian child.

The bill requires the juvenile court to designate a placement that is the least restrictive setting that most approximates a family, that meets the Indian child's special needs, if any, and that is within reasonable proximity to the Indian child's home, taking into account the Indian child's special needs. The bill also specifies that the standards to be applied in meeting the placement preference requirements of the bill are the prevailing social and cultural standards of the Indian community in which the Indian child's parent or extended family members reside or with which the parent or extended family members maintain social and cultural ties.

Finally, with respect to involuntary out-of-home care placements and TPR proceedings, ICWA permits the Indian child or the Indian child's parent, Indian custodian, or tribe to petition any court of competent jurisdiction to invalidate an out-of-home care placement or TPR upon a showing that the placement or TPR violated any provision of ICWA relating to out-of-home care placements or TPR.

This bill permits any Indian child who is the subject of an out-of-home care placement or of a TPR proceeding, any parent or Indian custodian of that Indian child, or the Indian child's tribe to move the juvenile court to invalidate that out-of-home care placement or TPR on the grounds that the out-of-home care placement was made or the TPR was ordered in violation of any provision of the bill or of ICWA relating to out-of-home care placements or TPR. If the juvenile court finds that those grounds exist and if the Indian child has not been adopted, the juvenile court must invalidate the out-of-home care placement or TPR and order the Indian child to be returned to his or her parent or Indian custodian. If the Indian child has been adopted, the parent or Indian custodian may petition the juvenile court for return of custody of the Indian child.

Voluntary TPR

Under ICWA, the consent of a parent to an out-of-home care placement of, or a TPR to, an Indian child is not valid unless executed in writing, recorded before a judge of a court of competent jurisdiction, and accompanied by the judge's certification that the terms and consequences of the consent were fully explained in detail and were fully understood by the parent. ICWA also requires the court to certify that the parent fully understood the explanation in English or that the explanation was interpreted into a language that the parent understood. Under ICWA, any consent given prior to, or within ten days after, the birth of an Indian child, is not valid. ICWA permits a parent to withdraw his or her consent to a TPR for any reason prior to the entry of a final decree of ~~TPR~~, or to withdraw his or her consent to an out-of-home care placement at any time, and the Indian child must be returned to the parent. After the entry of a final decree of adoption of an Indian child, the Indian child's parent may withdraw consent to the TPR to the Indian child on the grounds of fraud or duress and may petition the court to vacate the decree. If the court finds that the consent was obtained through fraud or duress, the court must vacate the decree and return the Indian child to his or her parent, except that no adoption that has been effective for at least two years may be invalidated by the withdrawal of consent on the grounds of fraud or duress.

This bill provides that a voluntary consent to an out-of-home care or placement of, or TPR to, an Indian child is valid only if the consent is executed in writing, recorded before a judge, and accompanied by a written certification by the judge that the terms and consequences of the consent were fully explained in detail to and were fully understood by the parent. The bill also requires the judge to certify that the parent fully understood the explanation in English or that the explanation was interpreted into a language that the parent understood. Under the bill, any consent to an out-of-home care placement or TPR given prior to or within ten days after the birth of an Indian child is not valid.

granting adoption

The bill permits a parent who has consented to TPR to an Indian child to withdraw the consent for any reason at any time prior to the entry of a final order ~~TPR~~, or a parent who has consented to an out-of-home care placement of an Indian child to withdraw that consent at any time, and the Indian child must be returned to his or her parent. After the entry of a final ~~TPR~~ order, a parent who has consented to TPR to an Indian child or who did not contest a petition initiating involuntary TPR proceedings may withdraw that consent and move the juvenile court for relief from the order on the grounds that the consent was obtained through fraud, misrepresentation, or duress, if the motion is filed within two years after the entry of an order granting adoption of the Indian child. If the juvenile court finds that the consent was obtained through fraud, misrepresentation, or duress, the juvenile court must vacate the TPR order and, if applicable, the order granting adoption.

Adoption

ICWA requires, when an Indian child is placed for adoption, that a preference be given, in the absence of good cause to the contrary, to a placement with a member of the Indian child's extended family, other members of the Indian child's tribe, or other Indian families, unless the Indian child's tribe has established a different order of preference. ICWA also specifies that the standards to be applied in meeting the placement preference requirements of ICWA are the prevailing social and cultural standards of the Indian community in which the Indian child's parent or extended family resides or with which the parent or extended family maintains social and cultural ties.

This bill requires DHFS, a county department, or a child welfare agency, in placing an Indian child for adoption or in investigating or making a recommendation regarding the adoptive placement of an Indian child, and a juvenile court, in determining whether an adoptive placement is in the best interests of an Indian child, to give preference to a placement with one of the following, in the order of preference listed, unless the Indian child's tribe has established a different order of preference or good cause is shown for departing from that order of preference:

1. An extended family member of the Indian child.
2. Another member of the Indian child's tribe.
3. Another Indian family.

The bill also specifies that the standards to be applied in meeting the placement preference requirements of the bill are the prevailing social and cultural standards of the Indian community in which the Indian child's parent or extended family members reside or with which the parent or extended family members maintain social and cultural ties.

ICWA permits a biological parent or former Indian custodian of an Indian child who has been adopted to petition for return of custody of the Indian child when a final decree of adoption of the Indian child has been vacated or set aside or when the adoptive parents of the Indian child voluntarily consent to TPR to the Indian child. Under ICWA, the state court must grant the petition unless there is a showing that return of custody is not in the best interests of the Indian child.

This bill requires a juvenile court that vacates or sets aside a final order granting adoption of an Indian child or that grants an order voluntarily terminating parental rights to an Indian child of all adoptive parents of the Indian child to notify the Indian child's former parent and former Indian custodian, and the former parent or former Indian custodian may petition for the return of custody of the Indian child. The juvenile court must grant the petition unless there is a showing of good cause that return of custody is not in the best interest of the Indian child.

Finally, ICWA requires a state court that enters a final decree of adoption of an Indian child to: 1) provide the U.S. secretary of the interior with a copy of the decree, together with such other information as may be necessary to show the name and tribal affiliation of the Indian child, the names and addresses of the Indian child's biological parents, the names and addresses of the Indian child's adoptive parents, and the identity of any agency having files or information relating to the adoptive placement of the Indian child; and 2) inform an Indian individual who has reached the age of 18 years and who was the subject of an adoptive placement, upon application, of the tribal affiliation, if any, of the individual's biological parents and with such other information as may be necessary to protect any rights flowing from the individual's tribal relationship. ICWA also provides that, when a biological parent has filed an affidavit requesting that his or her identity remain confidential, the court must include that affidavit with the information provided to the U.S. secretary of the interior.

This bill requires a juvenile court that enters an order granting adoption of an Indian child to: 1) provide the U.S. secretary of the interior with a copy of the order, together with such other records and papers pertaining to the adoption proceeding as may be necessary to provide that secretary with the name and tribal affiliation of the Indian child, the names and addresses of the Indian child's birth parents, the names and addresses of the Indian child's adoptive parents, and the identity of any agency that has in its possession any files or information relating to the adoptive placement of the Indian child; 2) give the birth parent an opportunity to file an affidavit indicating that the birth parent wishes the U.S. secretary of the interior to maintain the confidentiality of the birth parent's identity and include that affidavit with the information provided to the U.S. secretary of the interior; and 3) provide an Indian adoptee who is 18 years of age or older, upon request, with the tribal affiliation, if any, of the adoptee's birth parents and with such other information as may be necessary to protect any rights accruing to the adoptee as a result of that affiliation.

8 subsequently intermarry under s. 767.803, "parent" includes a person acknowledged
9 under s. 767.805 or a substantially similar law of another state or adjudicated to be 10 the biological father. "Parent" does not include any person whose parental rights 11 have been terminated.

NOTE: The DHFS draft creates s. 48.40 (1g) to define "Indian parent." Actually,
ICWA applies to any parent, not just an Indian parent, of an Indian child. See 25 USC 1903 (9). Accordingly, s. 48.40 (1g) is not included in this draft.

12 SECTION 11. 48.02 (15) of the statutes is amended to read:

16 generation as denoted by the prefix of grand, great, or great-great, whether by blood,
17 marriage, or legal adoption, or the spouse of any person named in this subsection, 18 even if the marriage is terminated by death or divorce. "Relative" also includes, in

17 (a) Cooperate fully with Indian tribes in order to ensure that the federal Indian 18 Child Welfare Act is enforced in this state.

19 (b) Protect the best interests of Indian children and promote the stability and 20 security of Indian tribes and families by ~~establishing~~ minimum standards for the 21 removal of Indian children from their families and placing those children in

(f) "Preadoptive placement" means the temporary placement of an Indian child in a foster home, treatment foster home, group home, or residential care center for children and youth or in the home of a guardian after a termination of parental rights but prior to or in lieu of an adoptive placement.

NOTE: Most of the definitions found in 25 USC 1903 are used throughout ch. 48. Accordingly, those definitions are incorporated in s. 48.02.

(3) JURISDICTION OVER INDIAN CHILD CUSTODY PROCEEDINGS. (a) Exclusive tribal jurisdiction. 1. An Indian tribe shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any Indian child custody proceeding involving an Indian child who resides or is domiciled within the reservation of the tribe, except when that jurisdiction is otherwise vested in the state by federal law and except as provided in subd. 2. If an Indian child is a ward of a tribal court, the Indian tribe shall retain exclusive jurisdiction regardless of the residence or domicile of the child.

2. Subdivision 1. does not prevent an Indian child who resides or is domiciled within a reservation, but who is temporarily located off the reservation, from being taken into and held in custody under ss. 48.19 to 48.21 in order to prevent imminent physical harm or damage to the Indian child. The person taking the Indian child into custody or the intake worker shall immediately release the Indian child from custody upon determining that holding the Indian child in custody is no longer necessary to prevent imminent physical damage or harm to the Indian child and shall expeditiously ~~initiate an Indian child custody proceeding, transfer the Indian child to the jurisdiction of the appropriate Indian tribe, or~~ restore the Indian child to his or her parent or Indian custodian, as may be appropriate.

(c) Transfer of proceedings to tribe. In any Indian child custody proceeding under this chapter involving an out-of-home placement of, or termination of transfer the Indian child to the jurisdiction of the appropriate Indian tribe, or initiate an Indian child custody proceeding, parental rights to, an Indian child who is not residing or domiciled within the reservation of the Indian child's tribe, the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter shall, upon the petition of the Indian child's parent, Indian custodian, or tribe, transfer the proceeding to the jurisdiction of the tribe unless any of the following applies:

Insert 16-8

1. A parent of the Indian child objects to the transfer.

2. The tribal court of the Indian child's tribe declines jurisdiction.

3. The court determines that good cause exists to deny the transfer.

(d) Declination of jurisdiction. If the court determines that the petitioner in an Indian child custody proceeding has improperly removed the Indian child from the custody of his or her parent or Indian custodian or has improperly retained custody of the Indian child after a visit or other temporary relinquishment of custody, the court shall decline jurisdiction over the petition and immediately return the Indian child to the custody of the parent or Indian custodian, unless the court determines that returning the Indian child to his or her parent or Indian custodian would subject the Indian child to substantial and immediate danger or the threat of that danger.

(e) Intervention. An Indian child's Indian custodian or tribe may intervene at any point in an Indian child custody proceeding under this chapter involving an out-of-home care placement of, or termination of parental rights to, the Indian child.

(f) Full faith and credit. The ~~court~~ ^{state} shall give full faith and credit to the public acts, records, and judicial proceedings of any Indian tribe that are applicable to an Indian child custody proceeding to the same extent that the state gives full faith and credit to the public acts, records, and judicial proceedings of any other governmental entity.

NOTE: This subsection incorporates 25 USC 1911, 1920, and 1922 relating to jurisdiction. In reviewing this subsection, please note all of the following:

1. Because 25 USC 1922 governs emergency removal of a child domiciled on a reservation, this draft incorporates that provision into s. 48.028 (3) ~~(b)~~, which relates to jurisdiction over such a child. (c)

2. 25 USC 1911 (b) and (c), relating to transfer of proceedings and intervention, only apply to out-of-home care placements and termination of parental rights (TPR) proceedings, not to adoptive placements. Accordingly, the reference in the DHFS draft to any Indian child custody proceeding is too broad.

3. Also, with respect to transfer of jurisdiction, the language of the U.S. Department of Interior Guidelines is clearer than 25 USC 1911 (b), so this draft uses the Guidelines language.

4. 25 USC 1920 relates to declination of jurisdiction. Therefore that section is incorporated into the subsection on jurisdiction.

(4) ~~IN VOLUNTARY~~ COURT PROCEEDINGS. (a) Notice. In any involuntary proceeding involving the out-of-home care placement of, termination of parental rights to, or return of custody under sub. (8) (a) of a child whom the court knows or has reason to know is an Indian child, the court or party seeking the out-of-home care placement, termination of parental rights, or return of custody shall notify the Indian child's parent, former parent, Indian custodian, former Indian custodian, and tribe, by registered mail, return receipt requested, of the pending proceeding and of their right to intervene in the proceeding. If the identity or location of the Indian child's parent, former parent, Indian custodian, former Indian custodian, or tribe cannot be determined, that notice shall be given to the U.S. secretary of the interior in like manner. The next hearing in the proceeding may not be held until at least 10 days after receipt of the notice by the parent, former parent, Indian custodian, former Indian custodian, and tribe. On request of the parent, former parent, Indian custodian, former Indian custodian, or tribe, the court shall grant a continuance of up to 20 additional days to enable the requester to prepare for that hearing.

(b) Appointment of counsel. Whenever an Indian child is the subject of a proceeding involving the removal of the Indian child from his or her home, placement

1 of the Indian child in an out-of-home care placement, termination of parental rights
2 to the Indian child, or return of custody of the Indian child under sub. (8) (a), the 3 Indian child's parent, former parent, Indian custodian, or former Indian custodian,
4 upon a determination of indigency as provided in s. 48.23 (4), shall have the right to 5 be represented by court-appointed counsel. The court may also, in its discretion, 6 appoint counsel for the Indian child under s. 48.23 (3) if the court finds that the 7 appointment is in the best interests of the Indian child.

NOTE: 25 USC 1912 (b) requires the U.S. secretary of the interior to pay reasonable fees and expenses when state law makes no provision for the appointment of counsel. By incorporating 25 USC 1912 (b) into state law, however, state law is making provision for the appointment of counsel. Accordingly, this draft does not require the court to certify reasonable expenses to the U.S. secretary of the interior for the purpose of repayment of those expenses.

8 (c) Examination of reports and other documents. Each party to a proceeding
9 involving the out-of-home care placement of, termination of parental rights to, or 10 return of custody under sub. (8) (a) of an Indian child shall have the right to examine 11 all reports or other documents filed with the court upon which any decision with 12 respect to the out-of-home care placement, termination of parental rights, or return 13 of custody may be based.

14 (d) Out-of-home care placement; serious damage and active efforts. The court
15 may not order an Indian child to be placed in an out-of-home care placement unless 16 all of the following occur:

chosen in the order of preference listed in
sub. (2) (a) 1. to 4.

17 1. The court finds by clear and convincing evidence, including the testimony
18 of one or more qualified expert witnesses, that continued custody of the Indian child
19 by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical 20 damage to the child.

↑ as described in par (F) ↑

① 2. The court finds by clear and convincing evidence that active efforts have been 2 made to provide remedial services and rehabilitation programs designed to prevent
3 the breakup of the Indian family and that those efforts have proved unsuccessful.

4 (e) Termination of parental rights; serious damage and active efforts. The court
5 may not order termination of parental rights to an Indian child unless all of the 6 following occur: chosen in the order of preference listed in Sub. (2)(g) 1. to 4.

7 1. The court finds beyond a reasonable doubt, including the testimony of one 8 or more qualified expert witnesses, that the continued custody of the Indian child by 9 the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical 10 damage to the child.

↑ as described in par. (F) ↑

11 2. The court finds beyond a reasonable doubt that active efforts have been made 12 to provide remedial services and rehabilitation programs designed to prevent the 13 breakup of the Indian family and that those efforts have proved unsuccessful.

NOTE: This subsection incorporates 25 USC 1912 into ch. 48. ICWA is ambiguous as to whether both serious damage and active efforts must be proved beyond a reasonable doubt in order to TPR. In In Re Interest of DSP, 166 Wis. 2d 464 (1992), the Wisconsin Supreme Court held that both serious damage and active efforts must be proved beyond a reasonable doubt in order to TPR.

⑤ CONSENT; WITHDRAWAL

⑭ (5) VOLUNTARY PROCEEDINGS. (a) Out-of-home care placement. A voluntary 15 consent by a parent or Indian custodian to an out-of-home care placement of an 16 Indian child under s. 48.63 (1) or (5) (b) is not valid unless the consent is executed 17 in writing, recorded before a judge, and accompanied by a written certification by the 18 judge that the terms and consequences of the consent were fully explained in detail 19 to and were fully understood by the parent. The judge shall also certify that the 20 parent or Indian custodian fully understood the explanation in English or that the 21 explanation was interpreted into a language that the parent or Indian custodian 22 understood. Any consent given under this paragraph prior to or within 10 days after or Indian custodian

2 executed a consent under this paragraph may withdraw the consent for any reason
3 at any time, and the Indian child shall be returned to the parent or Indian custodian.
4 A parent or Indian custodian who has executed a consent under this paragraph may 5 also move to invalidate the out-of-home care placement under sub. (6).

6 (b) Termination of parental rights. A voluntary consent by a parent to a 7 termination of parental rights under s. 48.41 (2) (e) is not valid unless the consent
8 is executed in writing, recorded before a judge, and accompanied by a written 9 certification by the judge that the terms and consequences of the consent were fully 10 explained in detail to and were fully understood by the parent. The judge shall also 11 certify that the parent fully understood the explanation in English or that the 12 explanation was interpreted into a language that the parent understood. Any 13 consent given under this paragraph prior to or within 10 days after the birth of the 14 Indian child is not valid. A parent who has executed a consent under this paragraph 15 may withdraw the consent for any reason at any time prior to the entry of a final 16 order ^{granting adoption} ~~terminating parental rights~~, and the Indian child shall be returned to his or 17 her parent. After the entry of a final order ^{granting adoption} ~~terminating parental rights~~, a parent who 18 has executed a consent under this paragraph may withdraw that consent as provided 19 in par. (c), move to invalidate the termination of parental rights under sub. (6), or 20 move for relief from the judgment under s. 48.46 (2). ^{order granting adoption}

21 (c) Withdrawal of consent after ~~termination of parental rights~~. After the entry
22 of a final ^{order granting adoption or} ~~judgment terminating parental rights~~ for an Indian child, a parent who has 23 consented to ^{or parental rights} ~~that termination~~ under s. 48.41 (2) (e) or who did not contest the petition
24 initiating the proceeding in which his or her parental rights were terminated may 25 withdraw that consent and move the court for relief from the judgment on the

1 grounds that the consent was obtained through fraud, misrepresentation, or duress.
2 Any such motion shall be filed within 2 years after the entry of an order granting 3 adoption of the Indian child. A motion under this subsection does not affect the 4 finality or suspend the operation of the judgment or order terminating parental
5 rights or granting adoption. If the court finds that the consent was obtained through 6 fraud, misrepresentation, or duress, the court shall vacate the judgement or order
7 terminating parental rights and, if applicable, the order granting adoption and 8 return the Indian child to the custody of the parent.

NOTE: This subsection incorporates 25 USC 1913 into ch. 48.

9 (6) INVALIDATION OF ACTION. Any Indian child who is the subject of an 10 out-of-home care placement or of a termination of parental rights proceeding, any 11 parent or Indian custodian from whose custody that Indian child was removed, or the 12 Indian child's tribe may move the court to invalidate that out-of-home care
13 placement or termination of parental rights on the grounds that the out-of-home 14 care placement was made or the termination of parental rights was ordered in 15 violation of sub. (3), (4), or (5) or 25 USC 1911, 1912, or 1913. If the court finds that 16 those grounds exist and if the Indian child has not been adopted, the court shall 17 invalidate the out-of-home care placement or termination of parental rights and 18 order the Indian child to be returned to his or her parent or Indian custodian. If the 19 Indian child has been adopted, the parent or Indian custodian may petition the court
20 under sub. (8) (a) for return of custody of the Indian child.

NOTE: This subsection incorporates 25 USC 1914 into ch. 48.

21 (7) PLACEMENT OF INDIAN CHILD. (a) Adoptive placement; preferences. Subject
22 to pars. (c) ~~and (d)~~, in placing an Indian child for adoption, preference shall be given 23 to a placement with one of the following, in the order of preference listed:

in the absence of good cause to the contrary

1. An extended family member of the Indian child.

2. Another member of the Indian child's tribe.

3. Another Indian family.

in the absence of good cause to the contrary

(b) Out-of-home care or preadoptive placement; preferences. Any Indian child who is accepted for an out-of-home care placement or a preadoptive placement shall be placed in the least restrictive setting that most approximates a family, that meets the Indian child's special needs, if any, and that is within reasonable proximity to the Indian child's home, taking into account those special needs. Subject to pars. (c) to (e), in placing an Indian child in an out-of-home care placement or a preadoptive placement, preference shall be given to a placement in one of the following, in the order of preference listed:

1. The home of an extended family member of the Indian child.

2. A foster home or treatment foster home licensed, approved, or specified by the Indian child's tribe.

3. An Indian foster home or treatment foster home licensed or approved by the department, a county department, or a child welfare agency.

4. A group home or residential care center for children and youth approved by an Indian tribe or operated by an Indian organization that has a program suitable to meet the needs of the Indian child.

in the absence of good cause to the contrary

(c) Tribal or personal preferences. If the Indian child's tribe has established, by resolution, an order of preference that is different from the order specified in par. (a) or (b), the order of preference established by that tribe shall be followed, so long as the placement under par. (a) is appropriate for the Indian child's special needs, if any, and the placement under par. (b) is the least restrictive setting appropriate for the Indian child's needs as specified in par. (b). When appropriate, the preference of the

1 Indian child or parent shall be considered, and, when a parent who has consented
2 to the placement evidences a desire for anonymity, that desire shall be given weight,
3 in determining the placement.

4 ~~(d) Departure for good cause shown. The court or an agency may depart from~~
5 ~~the order of preference specified in par. (a), (b), or (c) for good cause shown.~~

6 (d) ~~(c)~~ Social and cultural standards. The standards to be applied in meeting the 7 placement preference requirements of this subsection shall be the prevailing social 8 and cultural standards of the Indian community in which the Indian child's parents
9 or extended family members reside or with which the Indian child's parents or 10 extended family members maintain social and cultural ties.

11 (e) ~~(d)~~ Report of placement. The department, <sup>a county department or a child welfare agency</sup> shall maintain a record of each 12 adoptive placement, out-of-home care placement, and preadoptive placement made
13 of an Indian child, evidencing the efforts made to comply with the placement
14 preference requirements specified in this subsection, and shall make that record
15 available at any time on the request of the U.S. secretary of the interior or the Indian 16 child's tribe.

NOTE: This subsection incorporates 25 USC 1915 into ch. 48.
